In 2024, he became the first player in the history of Ranji Trophy to complete the double of 6,000+ runs and 400+ wickets — a testament to his longevity, all-round ability, and consistent high performance.

Throughout his career he has played for multiple clubs and teams: starting with Madhya Pradesh, later moving to Kerala cricket team in 2016 where he spent nine seasons, and ahead of the 2025-26 season, he signed with Maharashtra cricket team.

As an all-rounder, Jalaj offers both reliable middle-order batting — including multiple centuries and fifties in first-class cricket — and effective off-spin bowling, making him a valuable asset for any side.

Given his experience, all-round contributions, and recent move to a fresh domestic side, he remains a strong candidate for clubs seeking a seasoned overseas/all-round professional — whether for English league cricket or other overseas contracts (under an International Sportsperson Visa).
